MEN'S PRAYER BREAKFAST

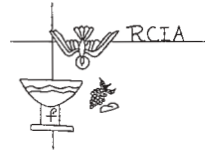

If you would like to meet some of your fellow parishioners for some prayer, fellowship and food to begin your day off on the right foot, plan to join men of the parish at Hall's Guesthouse this Friday, July 19th, at 6:00 a.m. ALL MEN ARE WELCOME!

NEWCOMERS REGISTRATION

Parish representatives will be in Church Conference Room TODAY, July 14th, after the 9 a.m. Mass to welcome and register new members to St. Vincent's.

CHURCH FLOOR REFINISHING

- The Blessed Sacrament Chapel will be closed on Monday July 15th.
- The church will be closed from Monday, July 15th through Friday, July 19th.

Prayer is stressed throughout the entire process. We pray at our meetings, we ask for prayer requests at our shared prayer, we pray at Mass, we have a session on various ways to pray. We also receive the loving prayer support from the community, and in particular from the Small Christian Communities, who act as prayer partners for each candidate/catechumen. Coordinating this effort is Vicki Welch. We ask for your prayers now for our Inquirers, and also for the people who came into the Church at the Easter Vigil.

RCIA FOR CHILDREN

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Children is a process of initiation into the Catholic Church for the children over the age of seven, not baptized as infants, or baptized in another denomination, or baptized but have not been catechized in the Catholic Church.

The new session will be starting in September. Please call the church office for more information.

We are also looking for people that are interested in being sponsors for the children this fall. This is a wonderful ministry that benefits the entire family as they make this journey together into the Catholic faith. Please call Lisa Harris at the church office for more information.

TAKE A MOMENT TO SAY "THANKS" FOR YOUR BLESSINGS

In adoration we express our dependence on God and our gratitude for all that His love has provided for our salvation, especially for the gift of His living presence in the Blessed Sacrament.

On Wednesday's, our parish is privileged to have Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament for the day until 4 p.m. in the Reservation Chapel. We are required to have at least two people praying as long as the Sacrament is on the altar for this type of adoration. Please contact Mary Ann Brown at 489-4823 if you would like to do this and be scheduled for a specific hour. Drop-ins are welcome.

We find this necessary because we need to begin to accumulate funds to help us pay for the following: a new school roof, Spiritual Center and rectory roof, organ repair and school boiler replacement. Some parishioners, having completed their building campaign pledge, will see this as an opportunity to continue giving in support of needed improvements for the maintenance and upkeep of the parish plant.

LITTLE FLOWER HOLY HOUR SERIES

Fr. Donald Isenbarger will celebrate the Holy Hour at MacDougal Chapel on Tuesday, July 16th, at 7:15 p.m. Father's topic for the evening will be "Centering Prayer". All are welcome to come and pray with the special intention for priests.

PROLIFE UPDATES: #1 POLITICAL ISSUE

Thomas Jefferson stated that the only legitimate object of good government is the care, and not the destruction, of its citizens. Abortion kills 1.6 million babies a year in America, and that is a serious, public issue involving human rights and human lives. Government has a duty to protect its people, not to pretend that they aren't people at all. VOTE PROLIFE.

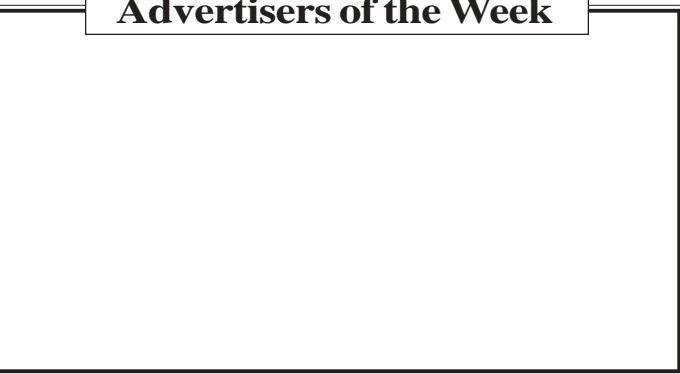

REQUEST OF SMALL CHRISTIAN COMMUNITIES

Pastoral Facilitators: We have a husband and wife wishing to join a community that would have wheelchair access in a home, or a community that would be willing to meet in the newcomers' home. The day of the week a community meets is no problem.

If you have 10 or fewer members, are at a point when you all agree to take in two new members, and can accommodate this particular need, please leave a message for me at the parish office.

In the first week of August, I will contact communities who have left such messages and see if we can accommodate these parishioners. If you think you might be open to this but you cannot contact your community until later than the first part of August, also leave me that message. Thank you for any consideration you can give to our need. Sincerely, Sister Kay

LIFE TEEN REFLECTION

We had ministry training last Sunday for teens who want to serve during the liturgy. Teens, I wish everyone could have heard your responses to Fr. John's questions about "What is a Catholic Mass?" You really have a grasp of what our faith is about. For those who wouldn't know how to respond to such a question, I suggest you read up on it so you can explain and defend our faith if asked. One book that I highly recommend is The Lamb's Supper by Scott Hahn. I hope to include some apologetics (a theological way of defending our faith) within Life Teen. As you have questions about Catholicism, please bring them up so we can explore the answers. This is one way to provide fertile ground that Jesus talks about in the Gospel today. Cindy

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY

MESSAGE TO ALL PARISHIONERS

Many members of St. Vincent's have been affected by the recent recession experienced in our economy. Some by loss of long-held jobs, others through extended layoffs, and many through restructuring or downsizing in local companies that have in the past provided long term employment and job security for many of our families.

Other parishioners may be experiencing the financial burdens caused by unexpected medical expenses of hospitalization, home nursing care, or the high cost of prescriptions not covered by insurance plans.

Whatever the causes may be, if you have any current needs that you are unable to take care of or manage in the way you have been able to do in the past, please be aware that your St. Vincent de Paul Conference, your fellow parishioners, are here for you in your time of need. We may not have all the answers, or immediate solutions to all of your problems, but we hope to be able to ease your burden in some way, and we would welcome the privilege to try. Please call us at 489-3537 so we may be of service in your time of need.

STAINED GLASS WINDOWS

If you are interested in donating one of the eighteen lower windows in the ambulatory of the nave of the church, the cost is $7,000. These attractive stained glass windows enhance the beauty of the church, and it will be wonderful to have them all in place. We are establishing a stained glass window fund for smaller donations.

Eventually we will be placing stained glass in the upper windows of the nave; this is necessary to reduce glare. The windows in the great dome will not be done in stained glass but will remain as they are.

A PRAYER OF COMPLETE SURRENDER

Is the consecration the most important part of the Mass?

Dear Padre,

I was always taught that the consecration of the Mass was the moment when the bread and the wine were turned into the body and blood of Jesus. In the old Mass I remember as a kid, the consecration was the most sacred moment of the Mass, but today it doesn't seem that way. Has something changed?

Dear George,

You ask if something has changed. Well... no and yes. When the Mass is celebrated, the bread and the wine become the true body and blood of Jesus when the priest speaks the words of the institution narrative, or as you remember it, the words of consecration. The Catechism of the Catholic Church says so quite clearly (1353). So it would seem that the answer to your question is a simple no, nothing has changed. But of course it is not that simple. That is why I answered your question with a "no and yes."

The Council of Trent tried to clear up the confusion surrounding the sacrament of the Eucharist in the minds of the people. It declared that the words of consecration, spoken by the priest over the elements of bread and wine, were the essential core of the sacrament. After the Council of Trent, Pope Pius V established the way Mass would be said. In that Mass, which remained unchanged until Vatican II (1962-65), the high point of the Mass was definitely the consecration. The bells were rung, the host and the chalice were elevated for all to see, anyone who might be standing at that moment dropped to their knees, heads were bowed, everything stopped.

But remember I said "no and yes" to your question. Things did change with Vatican II. The Church moved us away from just seeing the presence of Christ in the consecration and asked us to see Christ present in a much larger way. The Constitution on the Liturgy reminded us that Christ is present in the priest who celebrates the Mass; he is present in the Scriptures that are proclaimed at each Mass; he is found in the assembly of the faithful who gather in prayer at Mass; and of course in the great eucharistic prayer said at every Mass, one part of which is the institution narrative. In this way, everything that takes place at Mass is supremely important and not just one particular moment.

The Padre

Fr. William J. Parker, C.Ss.R.
